America Votes State Summit 2024 Agenda

Times and sessions are subject to change

Tuesday, March 26

10:30 AM – 4:30 PM Registration Opens

11:30 AM - 1:00 PM Lunch Served

12:00 PM – 12:30 PM Welcome & Opening Session [146ABC]

Summit Mainstage, powered by the Asian American Power Network

The 2024 State Summit will kick-off with a welcome from America Votes President Greg Speed, an overview of the conference agenda, key themes, and goals of the conference and a celebration of Daria Dawson as the new Executive Director of America Votes.

Ashlei Blue, North Carolina State Director, America Votes

Daria Dawson, Executive Director, America Votes

Greg Speed, President, America Votes

12:30 PM – 1:30 PM Opening Plenary: The Moment We're In [146ABC]

Summit Mainstage, powered by the Asian American Power Network

We cannot say it strongly enough: Our democracy and freedoms hang in the balance in 2024. The corrupt nominee of what was once the “Party of Lincoln” has told us he will be a “dictator on Day One” with plans for pardoning insurrectionists, sanctioning a national abortion ban, and establishing detention camps in our communities. How do we do the work when the threats are so real? Do we need to re-think our roles as advocates, strategists, and activists in an election when failure is simply not an option? This session brings together a group of extraordinary leaders to consider these questions and plot the path forward for our communities.

Moderator: Daria Dawson, America Votes

Jocelyn Benson, Secretary of State - Michigan

Keneshia Grant, Ph.D., Howard University

Gene Karpinski, League of Conservation Voters

Maurice Mitchell, Working Families Party

1:30 PM – 2:35 PM Winning the Fight for Democracy in 2024 & Beyond [146ABC]

Summit Mainstage, powered by the Asian American Power Network

If this is the most important election of our lifetimes (for real this time), and failure is not an option, then how are we going to win? This plenary discussion features wide-ranging perspectives from organizational leaders, practitioners and commentators on the strategic imperatives for victories in 2024 to resoundingly defeat MAGA, defend freedom, and build our collective power.

Moderator: Greg Speed, America Votes
Stefanie Brown James, The Collective PAC
Michael Frias, Catalist
Jon Fromowitz, Future Forward
Rebecca Traister, Author

3:30 - 4:45 PM Breakout Sessions: Issues & Ideas Shaping the Landscape

Abortion Is On The Ballot [149AB]

The travesty of the Dobbs decision has wrought devastating consequences in MAGA-controlled states across the country, but one line in the awful ruling contained truth that has resonated ever since: “Women [and other people of reproductive age] are not without electoral or political power.” Since Roe was overturned, abortion is now LITERALLY on the ballot in most states. This panel will discuss the opportunities and challenges of abortion ballot initiatives and how ballot initiative wins since Dobbs will play a role in the political landscape for years to come.

Moderator: Shwetika Baijal, Planned Parenthood Action Fund
Lauren Blauvelt, Planned Parenthood of Greater Ohio
Lauren Brenzel, Floridians Protecting Freedom
Chris Melody Fields Figueredo, Ballot Initiative Strategy Center
Shanay Watson-Whittaker, Reproductive Freedom for All

The Democracy Landscape: Protecting Voting Across States [144C]

This panel will highlight the election administration strategies and challenges facing progressives in 2024. In states that have expanded voting options, how do we leverage these new rules to ensure every voter has the opportunity to vote? Meanwhile in other states, leaders have created even more obstacles to make it more difficult for citizens to exercise their constitutional rights. Our panel will navigate the complexities of this administrative landscape and the changing of challenges into opportunities for the defense of voting rights and fair elections in 2024 and beyond.

Moderator: Carolina Lopez, America Votes
Rebekah Caruthers, Fair Elections Center
Kerry Durmick, All Voting is Local Action - NV
Kate Fellman, You Can Vote
Neal Ubriani, Institute for Responsive Government

Fighting Extremism [144B]

Extremists are threatening our communities and democracy at every level of government and society. Their coordinated efforts are spreading the “big lie” threatening freedom and safety of the LGBTQ+ people at state capitals, and sowing mistrust and division in attempting dominance over local school boards to ban books and erase history. Yet throughout 2023, our partners have consistently succeeded in exposing and defeating right-wing extremist candidates in local and state elections. What can we learn from these wins about effective local organizing and strategic communications that can help defeat extremist candidates in 2024?

Moderator: Anna Scholl, ProgressNow
Sheila E. Isong, Equality Federation
Angie Nixon, Florida For All
Daniel Ramos, Ohio Education Association
Michael Sozan, Center for American Progress Action Fund

Getting Real: Connecting With Voters on the Economy & Financial Security [144A]

The economy and personal financial security will be at the top of voters’ minds in 2024. Why have progressive groups and candidates struggled to connect with voters when our policies clearly advance their interests? This panel of experts will get real about what they’ve seen work effectively to cut through the jargon and turn economic issues into resonant, winning messages.

Moderator: Hillary Holley, Care in Action
Sondra Goldschein, Campaign for a Family Friendly Economy
Creasie Fowler, Service Employees International Union
Evan Kost, WorkMoney
Sage Warner, Center for American Progress

Saving Lives: Defeating the Gun Lobby in 2024 [143C]

Gun violence claims the lives of tens of thousands of Americans each year. While the gun lobby is well-financed and connected, the gun violence prevention movement continues to claim substantial wins at the state and national level. This panel will discuss the successes and challenges of the gun violence prevention movement, the generational shift away from MAGA Republicans’ gun rights extremism, and the transformation of recent trends to electoral victory and policy change.

Moderator: Emma Brown, Giffords
Angela Ferrell-Zabala, Moms Demand Action
Brandon Flood, Ceasefire PA
Monisha Henley, Everytown for Gun Safety
Brandon Wolf, Human Rights Campaign

Owning Victory: How to Finally Break Through on Policy Wins [143B]

Over the past 30 years, nearly 100% of net job growth has occurred under Democratic presidents, and the wide-ranging impacts of Democratic policy wins are being felt in communities across the country. These successes provide a foundational case for what it means when Democrats govern. Yet, many voters are either unaware, don’t know how to access benefits, or find recent progress under the current administration to be unbelievable. This panel will be a conversation about the most effective ways to message policy wins to voters.

Moderator: Roshni Nedungadi, HIT Strategies
Nick Ahamed, Priorities USA
Rachel Irwin, Future Forward
Marissa Luna, Alliance for a Better Minnesota
Mayra Macias, Build Back Together
Ian Smith, The Hub Project

Let's Talk Climate: Winning Policies & Electoral Momentum [143A]

Addressing the climate crisis and bolstering the transition to a clean energy future is imperative to humanity. As the devastating effects of climate change become more apparent each year, the crisis still fails to register with large segments of society. Despite recent major climate policy wins, voters seem to think little has been done. How can major climate policy wins over the last couple of years energize voters - especially youth voters - this cycle and propel an even more aggressive climate agenda?

Moderator: Eva Estrada, League of Conservation Voters
Tonyisha Harris, Action for the Climate Emergency
Seth Hoffmeister, Wisconsin Conservation Voters
Dan Xie, Student Public Interest Research Group

4:45 PM – 5:00 PM Close

6:00 PM – 8:00 PM Regional Welcome Receptions
Registered attendees are invited to join one of three regional welcome receptions to celebrate the start of the State Summit 2024.

Eastern & Southern Region Welcome Reception
Powered by Alliance for Youth Action and NextGen America
Love, Makoto, 200 Massachusetts Ave NW Suite 150

Midwest Region Welcome Reception

8:30 PM – 10:30 PM America Votes Partner Diversity Coalition Reception [Penn Social, 801 E St NW]
Powered by Asian American Power Network, The Collective PAC, NAACP, and National Congress of American Indians
State Summit attendees who self-identify as members of Black, Indigenous, and People of Color (BIPOC) communities are invited to join the America Votes Partner Diversity Coalition for an evening of fun, music, and fellowship.
There is limited capacity. Attendance will be first come, first served.

Wednesday, March 27

8:00 AM – 1:00 PM Registration Open

8:00 AM-9:30 AM Breakfast Served

9:00 AM – 9:15 AM A Call to Action with Elizabeth H. Shuler, President of the AFL-CIO [146ABC]

Summit Mainstage, powered by the Voter Turnout Fund

At a watershed moment for workers' rights and bargaining, with unions seeing increasingly higher favorability with Americans, organized labor has an extremely important role to play in 2024 to educate its members and inform all Americans about the stakes for their economic security. We're thrilled to welcome a true champion for workers, AFL-CIO President Liz Shuler, to launch our Summit's second day with an address about everything on the line this year.

9:15 AM - 10:15 AM Together We Surge: A Winning Coalition for 2024 & Beyond [146ABC]

Summit Mainstage, powered by the Voter Turnout Fund

Recent cycles have been consistently characterized by a growing electorate that has surged into action following the 2016 election. This surge is largely made up of voters under 35, voters of color, and people propelled into action in a post-Roe world. Our diverse and powerful coalition far exceeds our adversaries', but that alone is not a guarantee. As we saw in 2016, when people don't feel the stakes, they stay home and the country loses. In 2024, how can organizers expand the electorate, harness the power of the newly motivated surge voter, leverage opportunities to "spread out the vote," and maintain high support from our diverse coalition for pro-democracy candidates?

Moderator: Jasmine Nears, America Votes

10:15 AM - 10:30 AM Break

10:30 AM - 11:30 AM Bring The Noise: "Surround Sound" Voter Engagement in 2024 [146ABC]

Summit Mainstage, powered by the Voter Turnout Fund

Given the diverse communities and constituencies our coalition will engage in 2024, what are the tactics and the overall approach we need to employ to break through in a crowded and noisy political environment? With a grab-bag of tactics, how do we layer our approach and shift our thinking to reach and convince tough to reach and disengaged voters? How do we ensure that each tactic is as effective as possible while reaching tremendous scale to create a surround sound effect with voters?

Moderator: Daniel Gonzales, America Votes

1:00 PM - 2:15 PM Afternoon Breakouts: Growing & Mobilizing a Winning Coalition
Sessions marked with an asterisk will repeat.*

In My Voting Era: Motivating Youth Voters in 2024 [144C]*

Turnout among youth voters, especially BIPOC (Black, Indigenous, and People of Color) youth, was critical to many victories in 2020 and 2022. With many polls now showing lower levels of engagement and enthusiasm among younger voters, what are effective issues and strategies for re-engaging youth communities in 2024 as a force against MAGA nationally and down-ballot? This conversation will include the potential challenges and opportunities of youth engagement as well as a discussion of effective campus organizing tactics.

Moderator: Teddy Landis, Student Turnout Projects & Strategic Victory Fund
Yana Batra, Georgia Youth Justice Coalition
Mary-Pat Hector, Rise
Shelli Jackson, NextGen America
Lamonté Moore, Leaders Igniting Transformation

“Do They See Us?”: Engaging Black Men in 2024 [149AB]*

The needs and issues that matter most to Black men are often debated by everyone— except Black men. Aside from Black women, Black men are the most reliable progressive voters. Yet, one reads the news and an array of warnings will announce Black men are supposedly leaving the fold in droves. What is really going on? Join us for a conversation to dig deep into the assumptions around Black men and how the effects of those assumptions control the worthiness of investments in Black men.

Moderator: Cameron Trimble, Spero Studio & Hip-Politics
Raymond Paultre, The Florida Alliance
W. Mondale Robinson, Black Male Voter Project
Leslie Small, America Votes
Branden Snyder, Detroit Action

Organizing & Mobilizing During Times of Crisis [147AB]*

Fascism is knocking on America’s door, yet crises both at home and abroad threaten peoples’ lives, and can, at times, place mission and politics at odds. How do we continue to organize during moments of crisis, such as those we are witnessing in the Middle East, at the border, and within our own communities? How do we effectively advocate for our communities and issues when electoral victory is an absolute necessity? What are the things that coalesce and unite us when we strongly disagree on some important things?

Moderator: Jennifer Knox, Working Families Party
Vanessa Cárdenas, America’s Voice
Joel Payne, MoveOn
Amritha Venkataraman, America Votes
Emme Zanotti, Equality Michigan

Cutting Through the Clutter: New Tactics That Grow the Footprint & Fill in the Gaps [144B]

This session will highlight new ways organizations are connecting with voters to increase voter turnout. This session will help you gain valuable insights into innovative strategies that go beyond traditional methods and broaden the way we connect with and influence voters. Panelists will cover the opportunities and challenges for practitioners considering implementing these new tactics for this cycle.

Moderator: Christina Coloroso, Analyst Institute
Jessica Clark, Movement Labs
Marisa Kanof, Vote Rev
Anton Moore, Unity in the Community
Michael Peñuelas, Center for U.S. Voters Abroad

Mi Voto Cuenta! Counting on the Latino Vote in 2024 [144A]

As the Latino electorate grows larger every cycle, the complexity of its diverse communities also become clearer. While Latino communities vary from state to state, the need for effective engagement strategies is a consistent component of the path to victory. In this session, we will discuss key issues resonating among Latino voters, Latino consumption of information, and important data and cultural trends. Panelists will share best practices and identify vital opportunities in organizing the Latino vote across key states. Together we'll seek to answer the broad question of what it takes to ensure a win amongst Latino voters in 2024.

Registering the Future [143C]

Expanding voter registration is another critical component of presidential years, which represent the best opportunity to further grow the electorate, and create more lifelong voters over a four-year cycle. This panel will dig into how we can maximize this quadrennial opportunity over the next eight months by investing in programs to grow the electorate in 2024 and resonate well beyond.

Moderator: Caroline Cowley, Forward Majority
Allison Leow, Everybody Votes Campaign
Hilda Nucete, League of Conservation Voters
Joe Paul, Black Men Vote
Molly Shack, Ohio Organizing Campaign

Expanding Native American Electoral Power [143B]

In key battleground states, Native communities make up anywhere from 2% to 22% of the population, providing a critical tipping point for electoral outcomes. How can we engage effectively and authentically to build the collective power of the Native American vote in 2024 and over the long-term? Panelists will discuss the unique opportunities and challenges of expanding the Native American vote.

Moderator: Denise Juneau, Former Montana Superintendent of Public Schools
Ronnie Jo Horse, Western Native Voice
Saundra Mitrovich, National Congress of American Indians
Jaynie Parrish, Arizona Native Vote

2:15 PM - 2:30 PM Break

2:30 PM - 3:00 PM A Conversation with U.S. Representative Maxwell Frost [146ABC]

Summit Mainstage, powered by the Voter Turnout Fund

America Votes is thrilled to welcome Congressman Maxwell Frost to the 2024 Summit! Prior to being elected to the U.S. House in 2022, Congressman Frost was an advocate at the ACLU and served as National Organizing Director at March For Our Lives. As one of the most influential young activists of our time, Frost brings an important perspective to the issues facing our country. In this conversation, we'll hear Rep. Frost's perspective on the power of organizing and the transformative role that young voters hold to shape our democracy.

Fighting For Our Lives: LGBTQ+ Rights Are Not Secure [143A]

LGBTQ+ communities are under attack and their lives are being used for political theater. The majority of wins for queer communities are new and tenuous as the vast wave of attacks shows us how insecure LGBTQ+ rights really are. In a post-marriage equality political environment, how do we build coalitions within our communities and with our allies to fight for equality at the ballot box? What are the unique challenges of – and the unique power of – building a pro-queer voting bloc for the progressive movement for November and beyond?

Faith, Elections and Christian Nationalism [143C]

Christian Nationalists are a growing force in the MAGA GOP, but are they just a loud, vocal minority? Progressive Christians have been organizing their communities for decades serving as a bedrock of nearly every civil rights victory in our nation's history - from abolition to marriage equality. This session will dive into the threat from the Christian Far Right, and the effective organizing history and future of the Christian Left. Panelists will discuss effective faith organizing tactics and the value of a faith organizing strategy.
