12:00 PM – 12:30 PM    Welcome and Opening
This session will be livestreamed.

After more than two years, we are back together again as a community at the America Votes State Summit! We reunite in 2022 at another time of great challenge for our movement and country. We'll kick off this Summit by celebrating our many successes, reflecting on immeasurable loss, and restoring our collective commitment to our partnership and the hard work ahead.

Daria Dawson, Deputy Executive Director and National Political Director, America Votes
Kellie Dupree, National Director of Grants, America Votes
Sara Schreiber, Executive Director, America Votes
Greg Speed, President, America Votes

12:30 PM – 1:30 PM    6 Months Out: What's at Stake Can Make Us Stronger?
This session will be livestreamed.

We are six months out from an election that many predict will result in steep losses for Democrats. While some in the progressive base have been disillusioned with the process, MAGA voters are energized and conservatives continue using their power in the states and the courts to launch assaults upon our communities and our rights. The looming dismantling of Roe and access to abortion is yet another stark example of the Right's tenacious extremism.

With so much at stake, failure is simply not an option. How will progressives defy the polls and prognosticators in 2022? This panel of incredible leaders will consider how progressives will rally to meet the challenge and win again in 2022. Is it possible that the multitude of attacks from the Right - on women, immigrants, public education, LGBTQ+ and other communities - can also fuel our resurgence and help us to defy the recent history of midterm elections?

Sara Schreiber, Executive Director, America Votes (Moderator)
Laphonza Butler, EMILY's List
Cristina Tzintzún Ramirez, NextGen America
Karen White, National Education Association
Maya Wiley, Leadership Conference on Civil and Human Rights

1:30 PM – 2:30 PM

Re-Engaging the Blue Surge & Winning a (Multiple) Choice Election
This session will be livestreamed

More than 90 million Americans voted for a Democratic candidate over the past four years, creating the largest-ever pool of potential midterm voters for progressives to mobilize. Yet indications are that many who mobilized to defeat Trump are disillusioned, and off-year elections have seen staggeringly high turnout among MAGA conservatives. Further, recent midterm elections have been referendums on the incumbent White House and won by higher turnout of the party out of power.

This panel of leading national and state strategists will consider how progressives can succeed by thinking of 2022 as a multiple choice election: 1) millions of Blue Surge voters must see their stake in the process and choose to turnout again; 2) the entire electorate must be given a choice in this midterm, contrasting Democrats and progressives' agenda with MAGA Republicans who seek power at any cost and will use it to destroy our democracy and protect the very powerful.

Greg Speed, President, America Votes (Moderator)
LaNeisha Dawson, Nevada State Director, America Votes
Navin Nayak, Center for American Progress
Terrance Woodbury, HIT Strategies

2:30 PM – 3:00 PM

A Conversation with Congressman Cedric Richmond, Senior Advisor to the President and Director of the Office of Public Engagement
This session will be livestreamed

We're thrilled to be joined by one of President Biden's closest advisers, the Honorable Cedric Richmond, to hear about his time leading the Office of Public Engagement for the Biden Administration and what we can do to support a bold progressive agenda.

The Honorable Cedric Richmond, Senior Advisor to the President of the United States & Director of the Office of Public Engagement
Daria Dawson, Deputy Executive Director & National Political Director, America Votes (Moderator)

3:00 PM – 3:15 PM

Break

3:15 PM – 4:30 PM

Breakout Sessions - Rebuilding a Winning Coalition

Re-Energizing the Youth Vote

Turnout among younger voters surged throughout the Trump era and was critical to many victories. With many polls now showing lower levels of engagement and enthusiasm among younger voters, what are effective strategies for reengaging youth, especially BIPOC youth communities, in this fight in 2022 and beyond?

Lillie Catlin, NextGen America (Moderator)
Quincy Abramson, New Hampshire Youth Movement
Rachel Gilmer, Dream Defenders
Amit Mistry, Alliance for Youth Action

Abortion is on the Ballot

What does it mean when abortion is on the ballot in a way that hasn't been true for generations - if ever? How does that shape our opportunity in 2022 - from ballot measures to mayors and sheriffs to state legislatures and constitutional offices to control of Congress? This session will explore the charged, emotional, and polarized reality of connecting elections to abortion access and the opportunity to capture new energy in the fight to ensure access to reproductive justice.

Shwetika Baijal, Planned Parenthood Action Fund (Moderator)
Dusti Gurule, COLOR
Leslie Martes, Democratic Legislative Campaign Committee
Montica Talmadge, Lillian's List
Amanda Trump, Democratic Attorneys General Association

How High is Up? The Impact of Historically High Turnout

Voter turnout in the 2020 election was exceptionally high, with 66.8% of eligible voters casting ballots, the highest share since 1900. And 2018 also saw the highest midterm turnout in a century. However, 2020's voting spike occurred for both Democrats and Republicans, meaning success for Democrats varied across the country and down the ballot. What does it mean that more people than ever are voting? What are our expectations for turnout this year and how do those assumptions affect our path to victory? In this breakout session we'll have a conversation about how historically high voter turnout impacts organizing to win in 2022.

Mario Yedidia, UNITE HERE (Moderator)
Marissa Luna, Alliance for a Better Minnesota
Yolanda Perkins, WISDOM
Aisha Yaqoob Mahmood, Asian American Advocacy Fund
Todd Zimmer, Down Home North Carolina

What Just Happened? Post-2020 Redistricting & What to Expect Next

As the endgame of redistricting plays out in several key states, a few things are coming into focus. Although there will be fewer competitive seats, the U.S. House majority is likely to be in play through the decade. Next, Republicans' longstanding assault on voting rights has extended to minority representation, with many new GOP gerrymandered districts undermining BIPOC voters' ability to elect candidates of their choice. Finally, it ain't really over - re-redistricting is anticipated in many states in 2023 and beyond. An outstanding panel of redistricting experts and community stakeholders will break down what just happened and what to expect from here.

Liz Wester, National Democratic Redistricting Committee (Moderator)
Dan Crawford, North Carolina League of Conservation Voters
Aunna Dennis, Common Cause Georgia
Angela Lang, Black Leaders Organizing for Communities
Alexis Miller, AFSCME

Key 2022 Ballot Measures

Democracy - quite literally - is on the ballot. There are a record number of ballot measures in 2022 related to how we administer our elections - from conservative attacks to pro-active opportunities to expand ballot access. Simultaneously, ballot measures are being used to advance a host of progressive policies and build progressive power - even while direct democracy itself is threatened by conservative forces. This session will illuminate the 2022 ballot measure landscape, share insights into how states are organizing themselves and using this tool, and provide strategies on how states can prepare to use ballot measures in 2024.

Mawj Mohammed, Michigan Voting Rights Manager, America Votes (Moderator)
Brad Christian-Sallis, Ballot Initiative Strategy Center
Molly Fleming, Missouri Organizing and Voter Engagement Collaborative (MOVE)
Gina Moore, Ballot Initiative Strategy Center

You Have to Give Them Hope: Rallying in Defense of LGBTQ Communities

The LGBTQ community has endured disgusting smears and ferocious attacks from conservative in so many states, local jurisdictions and media outlets - an assault that has intensified over the past year. Amid assaults on many fronts, how can progressive allies rally in defense of our LGBTQ neighbors and hold the Right accountable for their destructive smears?

Fran Hutchins, Equality Federation (Moderator)
Reg Calcagno, Human Rights Campaign
Victoria Kirby-York, National Black Justice Coalition
Joe Saunders, Equality Florida
Emmett Schelling, Transgender Education Network of Texas (TENT)

It Ain't All Bad News: Legislative, Administrative, and Advocacy Paths to Expanding Freedoms to Vote
This session will be livestreamed.

While a significant number of anti-democracy bills have been introduced since the 2020 General Election, voters across many states will benefit from more voting opportunities this year than they did in the most recent midterm. We must be vigilant in fighting against efforts to limit voting, and we must also employ a proactive pro-democracy strategy to expand access to the ballot box through legislative, administrative, and advocacy avenues, regardless of the state's power structure.

Carolina Lopez, National Voting Rights Program Director, America Votes (Moderator)
Jake Atcheson Matilsky, Center for Secure and Modern Elections
Tiana Epps-Johnson, Center for Tech and Civic Life
Jasmine Nears, Wisconsin State Director, America Votes

This session will be livestreamed starting at 6:15pm.

Join America Votes in recognizing the 2022 recipient of the Cecile Richards Progressive Leader Award. We are thrilled to recognize the tremendous leadership of past EMILY's List President Stephanie Schriock. Stephanie's incredible efforts over the past decade have grown the organization tremendously, helping to elect a record number of pro-choice Democratic women at every level of the ballot. We're also thrilled to be joined by Stephanie's successor, EMILY's List President Laphonza Butler, who is advancing the organization's mission at a time when it is critically needed in the fight for protect abortion access and defend our democracy.

Wednesday, May 11

8:00 AM – 1:00 PM      Registration Open

8:00 AM      Breakfast Served

8:15 AM- 8:45 AM      Pre-Opening Breakout Session: Mindful Movement & Meditation with Reggie Hubbard

Too often those of us in movement work consider our health and well-being an afterthought, which degrades the quality of our work because we grind ourselves into illness rather than support our wellness. The goal of this session is to offer simple techniques and an environment that celebrates health, well-being and community care as foundational to the work of the movement – deconstructing self-destructive habits and nourishing our wellness to create new norms rooted in thriving, not surviving.

9:00 AM – 9:30 AM      Opening Session: A Conversation with Special Guest U.S. Rep. Pramila Jayapal
This session will be livestreamed.

On issues ranging from public investment to workers' rights to voting rights, Representative Pramila Jayapal (WA-07) has effectively cut through congressional jargon to powerfully advocate for progressive policies and draw clear contrasts with conservatives. We're thrilled to be joined by the Congresswoman for her insight on the current legislative agenda in Washington and a message that will resonate with our voters this fall.

U.S. Representative Pramila Jayapal, WA-07
Maria Peralta, SEIU (Moderator)

9:30 AM – 10:45 AM    How to Not Repeat History: What Do We Need To Do to Win this Midterm?
This session will be livestreamed.

In 2020, the progressive community overcame enormous obstacles to transform the face of power in Washington. And while we accomplished a lot of what we set out to do for 2020, we also failed to meet many high expectations. With power at every level in the balance, we need a strategy for victory from the top to the bottom of the ballot in the 2022 midterm. And while we have a vision of which races, states, and voting blocs we need to win, how do we approach doing that authentically and effectively in a tougher environment? This session will explore what's on the ballot this year and the need for a layered strategy to motivate and mobilize voters and win at every level in 2022.

Daria Dawson, America Votes (Moderator)
Jeremy Halbert-Harris, House Majority PAC
Quentin James, Collective PAC
Grecia Lima, Community Change Action
JB Poersch, Senate Majority PAC

10:45 AM – 11:00 AM    Break

11:00 AM – 12:15 PM    Breakout Sessions (Selected Breakouts Repeated in Afternoon)

Get Out (& Spread Out) the Vote

In 2020, America Votes launched a “Spread Out the Vote” (SOTV) strategy to encourage voters to vote safely from home during a pandemic and lessen the in-person administration burden on Election Day. In 2022, our challenge is replicating the historic turnout of the Trump Era and matching MAGA Republicans’ enthusiasm. SOTV will again be key to meeting that challenge by leveraging every stage of the election process and informing voters of all options to safely and easily cast a ballot. This session will discuss how SOTV can increase turnout and protect access to voting again in 2022.

Josh Geise, National VBM and SOTV Director, America Votes (Moderator)
Nick Ahamed, Priorities USA
Cecia Alvarado, Somos Votantes
Lionel Dripps Voter Participation Center
Ashley McBride, For Our Future

Election Protection in the Post-Truth Era

Truth is a function of power. In this breakout session, we invite you to examine the nuances of election and voter protection through the lens of those who administer elections, and those who fight to keep them democratic. Although this has been a hot topic as of late, voter suppression in the forms of systemic underfunding, political violence and intimidation has shaped American history. How do we ensure that the communities we serve and mobilize have their civic participation honored? How do we integrate this thinking into our yearly programs? What does clerk engagement mean in a small town of 400 residents or in a metropolis like New York City? How can we keep the public safe at the polls and acknowledge a history of police brutality and intimidation at the same time? How do we do this and maintain that BIPOC communities are not a monolith? We invite you to explore these courageous questions on our path to a more perfect union.

Kelsey Douville, New Hampshire Election Official Program Manager, America Votes (Moderator)
Brad Ashwell, All Voting is Local
Rexhinaldo Nazarko, Engage
Michael Siegrist, Canton Township
Branden Snyder, Detroit Action

Voter Registration: Expanding the Electorate in 2022

Voter registration is critical to expanding the electorate and to increasing inclusion and participation in our democracy. After a presidential election in which voter registration efforts were profoundly affected by the pandemic, what does the registration policy and program landscape look like in 2022? And importantly, what are strategies to ensure new registrants aren't simply added names on the rolls, but become engaged and empowered new voters?

Jasmine Burney-Clark, Equal Ground Action Fund (Moderator)
Enrique Chaurand, UnidosUS
Neal Ubriani, Institute for Responsive Government
Yadira Sanchez, Poder Latinx

Using Race Models: Challenges and Best Practices

In so many ways, authentic and effective engagement of communities demands high-quality data on race, ethnicity and other critical characteristics that inform our identities. This session will address longstanding challenges and new opportunities in race modeling and discuss best and innovative practices for utilizing and supplementing them.

Shoham Geva, Senior National Analytics Manager, America Votes (Moderator)
Yvonne Gutierrez, Latino Victory Project
Wassim Malas, Wisconsin Muslim Civic Alliance

Yasmeen Vinson, NextGen America

Mobilizing Black Voters

Voter turnout surged across the entire electorate in 2020, especially among Black voters, who turned out in higher numbers than any election since 2012 and delivered the deciding margin in key battleground states. The turnout surge didn't just happen, but came after years of investments in strong organizations and community engagement. We'll hear from experts in the field about what we need to do to sustain high levels of engagement among Black voters in 2022 and beyond.

In 2020, AAPI turnout soared and their strong margins of support were critical to victories in many battleground states. There's a growing understanding that AAPI communities will again be essential in the 2022 midterms and beyond. This turnout and support cannot be assumed. There needs to be strong engagement and thoughtful strategy to maintain and continue building support in these communities. This session will highlight opportunities to engage AAPI voters this year, lifting up the robust work already being done, and where there are crucial gaps in infrastructure and organizing capacity that need to be filled.

Nadia Belkin, Asian American Power Network (Moderator)

Eric Jeng, One APIA Nevada

Varun Nikore, AAPI Victory Alliance

Mohan Seshadri, Asian Pacific Islander Political Alliance

Mobilizing Latino Voters

The Latino electorate has never been a monolith and that was clearer than ever in 2020. Even the terms used to describe Latino voters vary across states and ethnicities. In order to succeed in 2022 and beyond, we must confront the fact that progressives have lost ground in many Latino communities, particularly among working class and rural Latinos. This panel of leading strategists will question conventional wisdom and reconsider long standing assumptions for how to engage, persuade, and turn out Latino voters. We'll dig into what we're getting wrong, how we can broaden our thinking about these vibrant, growing communities, and what we need to do now to succeed.
